

Name: Vest		Grading Quarter: 1	Week Beginning: 10/2 - 10/5
School Year: 2023-2024		Subject: AP US History
Monday	Notes:	Objective: Students should be able to demonstrate an understanding of key issues and events in the American Revolution, and should be able to evaluate the causes of the Revolution and the factors leading to colonial victory. Lesson Overview: No new reading - get caught up. I'll publish the Weekly Work for our first week back after fall break - I expect you to be caught up. So, if you don't want reading during fall break - do it this week! Monday - The Revolution (LO 3.5)! We'll hit the high points you need to know, and I'll probably go into detail on military history that you don't need for the AP exam, but should know as citizens.	Academic Standards: AP LO 3.5
Tuesday	Notes:	Objective: Lesson Overview: Tuesday - No class, midterms for blocks 1 and 2	Academic Standards: N/A
Wednesday	Notes:	Objective: Students should be able to evaluate competing arguments regarding the American Revolution and develop and defend a thesis that supports their argument. Lesson Overview: Wednesday - Midterm assignment. We'll be doing an in class assignment on whether or not the Revolution was inevitable. I've given you some short readings in advance (see assignment in Canvas). You can also use evidence from textbook, class, and John Adams.	Academic Standards: AP LOs 3.2-3.5, inclusive
Thursday	Notes:	Objective: Students should be able to demonstrate an understanding of key concepts from the first three units of the course, as well as demonstrate knowledge of proper techniques for completing AP short answer questions. Lesson Overview: Thursday - SAQ practice in class, using Question Bank items from Units 1-3.	Academic Standards: AP LOs 1.1-3.5, inclusive

Friday	Notes:	Objective: Lesson Overview: Fall Break, no class	Academic Standards:
--------	--------	--	---------------------