

Name: Vest		Grading Quarter: Q3	Week Beginning: Jan 22
School Year: 2023		Subject: AP Government
Monday	Notes:	Objective: Students will demonstrate an ability to defend a position related to the content of AP Learning Objectives 1.1-1.2 using evidence from required reading and foundational documents. Lesson Overview: READING ASSIGNMENT FOR WEEK: Remainder of Ch 2, Ch 3 Monday - 1/2 of class, argumentative essay on what we've covered so far; 1/2 of class, Constitutional anagram reading/work time	Academic Standards: AP Learning Objective 1.2
Tuesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will diagram and analyze key components and concepts of the US Constitution. Lesson Overview: Tuesday - Finish up Constitutional anagram assignment; finish up any lecture/discussion needed on development of and content of Constitution	Academic Standards: AP Learning Objective 1.2
Wednesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop an understanding of the key arguments for and against the Constitution Lesson Overview: Wednesday - We'll briefly review the Federalist position on the ratification of the Constitution. With remaining time, you can start reading Federalist 10 in class.	Academic Standards: AP Learning Objective 1.3

Thursday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop an understanding of the key arguments for and against the Constitution Lesson Overview: Thursday - Lecture/discussion in class about the various Anti-Federalist positions (see AP Unit 1 Packet). Following that, start reading Brutus 1. This is a tough, long read, but it's your ONLY source for opposition to the Constitution, so you need to know it well. Notes due, be done with Chapter 3 by here.	Academic Standards: AP Learning Objective 1.3
Friday	Notes:	Objective: Students will demonstrate understanding of Federalist and AntiFederalist positions on the Constitutions through a class discussion and argumentation. Lesson Overview: Friday - Finish reading Brutus 1 as needed, discuss in class.	Academic Standards: AP Learning Objective 1.3