MIchael Granillo	3rd Quarter	Week Beginning: January 22
School Year: 2023-24	Subject: AP Statistics

Monday	Notes:	Objective: Students will apply the mean, median, and range to describe a set of data. Lesson Overview: 1.3 - Finish the discussion about mean, median, and range. Also, we will look at box plots.	Academic Standards:
Tuesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will review the topics of Chapter 1 in preparation for their test. Lesson Overview: Chapter 1 Review	Academic Standards:
Wednesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will demonstrate mastery of the topics in Chapter 1. Lesson Overview: Chapter 1 Test.	Academic Standards:
Thursday		Objective: Students will define and be able to find a percentile and a z-score. Lesson Overview: 2.1 - Given a set of data, we will look for a specific percentile and know what that tells us about scores above and below. We will also investigate a z-score and how it applies to standard deviation.	Academic Standards:
Friday	Notes:	Objective: Students will learn about density curves and apply them to real-world problems. Lesson Overview: 2.2 - Students will investigate density curves as well as normal distributions.	Academic Standards: